WHEEL COLLISION EMAIL DISCLAIMER

Applicability

This disclaimer applies to our original e-mail, any attachments and all subsequent e-mails or attachments that the Wheel Collision (Pty) Ltd (the Company) user may send reserves the right to monitor, intercept and block emails addressed to its users or take any other action in accordance with its email use policy. The Company specifically elects to not apply the provisions of the Electronic Communications and Transactions Act, No. 25 of 2002 (as amended) (ECTA) to the content and format of this email, unless expressly stated otherwise.

Recipients of e-mail from the Company

E-mails and their attachments (collectively referred to as "e-mail") are intended for the named recipient/s only. If you are not the named recipient (or their authorised representative) or an intended recipient of a copy of the e-mail, or have otherwise received the e-mail in error:

- Notify the sender (as specified in the e-mail) and delete this message once you have notified the sender.
- You may not:
 - forward, copy or otherwise transmit or disseminate the e-mail or any of the contents thereof to any person other than the named sender or to legal@wheelcollision.co.za;
 - print, save or otherwise store the e-mail or any of the contents thereof in electronic or physical form.

Accuracy of information

Whilst all reasonable steps are taken to ensure the accuracy and integrity of information transmitted electronically and to preserve the confidentiality thereof, the Company accepts no liability or responsibility whatsoever if information or data is, for whatsoever reason, incorrect, corrupted or does not reach its intended destination.

Opinion

Any opinion or advice contained in this e-mail is to be read subject to the terms of our engagement. Additionally, although all reasonable steps are taken to ensure the quality and accuracy of drafting and information provided, accuracy is not guaranteed. It is your responsibility to check the detail and make sure that the information and or drafting is accurate, correct and suitable for your needs in terms of your business model before adopting it or sending it to any client or business associate.

Security

The Company puts the security of the client at a high priority. We have put efforts into ensuring that the message is error and virus-free. Unfortunately, full security of the email cannot be ensured as, despite our efforts, the data included in emails could be infected, intercepted, or corrupted. The recipient should check the email for threats with proper software, as the sender does not accept liability for any damage inflicted by viewing the content of this email, or for any errors or omissions in the contents of this message, which arise because of e-mail transmission.

Confidential

The e-mail and its contents are confidential, unless specifically stated or if this is manifestly clear from the context (including, by way of example, press releases and other official statements, issued by way of e-mail). If you are not certain of the confidentiality status of an e-mail, please contact the sender to confirm this. In addition, e-mails may be logged for archival purposes and may be reviewed by parties at the Company other than those named in the message header. Any unauthorised copying, disclosure, adaption, distribution, publication and/or use of, or any other unauthorised action taken based on this e-mail message, is strictly prohibited and may be unlawful and an infringement of copyright.

Offers, warranties and representations

The e-mail does not necessarily constitute an official representation of the Company unless this is specifically stated or clearly and objectively ascertainable from the contents of the e-mail itself.

E-mails from the Company do not, as a rule, contain warranties, representations or offers. You accordingly cannot rely on any purported warranty, representation or offer unless it is explicitly stated in the e-mail and the e-mail has been sent by a representative of the Company duly authorised to give warranties or make representations or offers on behalf of the Company.

Notwithstanding the above statement, the Company is entitled to rely on the contents of any e-mail sent to it (including warranties, representations or offers) unless otherwise provided.

Offensive e-mail content

Our employees and other users of the Company e-mail are subject to policies that prohibit:

- the obscuring, suppressing, or replacing another user's identity on an e-mail (pretending to be someone else);
- the use of the Company's information and communications systems for the exercise of the employee's right to free speech;
- sexual, religious, political and racial harassment;
- obscene, offensive, derogatory or defamatory remarks;
- otherwise, unlawful communication via e-mail.

Accordingly, if an e-mail sent by a Company user breaches any of these provisions, that e-mail is sent in that person's personal capacity and the Company is not liable for such messages. The Company will take appropriate disciplinary action against any person breaching these provisions and you can report any such breach to legal@wheelcollision.co.za.

Employer's liability

Any views or opinions presented in this email are solely those of the author and do not necessarily represent those of the Company. Employees of the Company are expressly required not to make defamatory statements and not to infringe or authorize any infringement of copyright or any other legal right by email communications. Any such communication is contrary to Company policy and outside the scope of the employment of the individual concerned. The Company will not accept any liability in respect of such communication, and the employee responsible will be personally liable for any damages or other liability arising.

Transmission and Receipt

In accordance with the Electronic Communications and Transactions Act 25 of 2002 ("ECTA"), an e-mail is only deemed to be received by the Company once this is confirmed to you orally or in writing and an e-mail is deemed to have been sent by the Company or its workers as soon as this is reflected in the Company's mail server logs. An auto-reply shall not constitute a response for purpose hereof.

Disclosure of e-mail address

The e-mail address of any employee of the Company who is a party to this e-mail may not be used, copied, sold, disclosed, shared or incorporated into any database or mailing list for spamming and/or online marketing practices without the prior consent of the employee and/or the Company.

ECTA

This e-mail disclaimer is enforceable and binding on the recipient in terms of sections 11(1) to 11(3) of ECTA. This e-mail disclaimer always takes precedence over any other e-mail disclaimer(s).

General

This e-mail disclaimer shall be governed by the law of South Africa. Any dispute arising from or in connection with this disclaimer shall be resolved in Johannesburg in accordance with the AFSA by an independent appointed arbitrator.
